

Figure 9. Flax plantations on Auckland Island.

Above: Mouth of Sealers Creek, Port Ross.

Below: Ranui Cove, the site of the Ngati Mutunga/Moriiori settlement (1842-56) and the World War II coastwatch station. This flax is quite unlike all the others.

Figure 10. Viv Nicholls setting up a study of the megaherbs on Campbell Island.

