

A1.2 Trip intention records

Trip intention records collected at the Department's Taumaraunui Field Centre showed that at least 3030 canoeists started a trip on the river between September 1991 and April 1992. This count included 2191 canoeists during the study period (6 December to 8 March: summer, plus 17-20 April: Easter; refer Appendix 3).

However, these records did not account for all canoeists, some of whom did not register their trip intentions, and others who started their trips down-river at Whakahoro. That not all canoeists were accounted for is also apparent from the greater actual numbers recorded from John Coull but counts (2393), and the river patrols (2542). It is likely that any future counts of data collected from the 'Great Walk' passes will provide much more precise figures.
